The Narrows
Narrows Center for the Arts is a 501(c)(3) non-profit charitable organization. The Narrows is located in a grand old mill building near Fall River’s waterfront on the 3rd floor of what once was a warehouse for the American Printing Company. In the early 20th Century, APC was the largest producer of printed cloth in the world.

The Narrows’ expansive performance area offers a spectacular view of Mount Hope Bay, Battleship Cove and the historical waterfront port for the Fall River Line. Working artists’ studios and two art galleries surround the concert area and complete the acclaimed Narrows Center for the Arts.

The Narrows is renowned for live music and visual arts and welcomes visitors from across the country. Every fall, the Narrows presents the annual Narrows Festival of the Arts, a one-day, family-centric Free event of Fine Music, Fine Art and Fine Food.

As we move forward we continue to make improvements to both our programming and our facility. We take pride in our educational arts programs as well as the personalized hospitality we offer to all who come through our doors.

Live Music
The Narrows is a premier venue for diverse performers of blues, folk, rock, jazz, roots, blue, bluegrass and other genres of music. Up-and-coming bands as well as legends in the industry including Peter Wolf, Carolina Chocolate Drops, Susan Tedeschi, Richard Thompson, Johnny Winter, Little Feat, Lisa Loeb, Bettye LaVette, Rickie Lee Jones, Robert Cray and Mavis Boll have graced our stage. Concert-goers from New England and beyond come to enjoy a night sitting up close and personal in our intimate venue. With seating of only 280, it’s like having Rosanne Cash, Marc Cohn, Judy Collins or Tom Rush in your own living room.

Friends of The Narrows
The Narrows Center relies on the generosity of the Friends of the Narrows who contribute the funds necessary to keep us operating. We appreciate your choosing our organization to financially support. The costs to stage live music productions, organize and display artwork in two galleries and produce an annual arts festival are extraordinary. Your contribution is essential and enables us to fulfill our original mission of offering an ever-growing access and fellowship in the arts.

Donations in any amount are welcome and are greatly appreciated. As a thank you for your donation, we offer several gift level benefits. Detailed information on reverse.

Visual Art
Our roots are in the visual arts. We began as the Renaissance Gallery, a 1,500 s/f exhibition space overlooking the Watuppa Ponds near the causeway known to locals as “the narrows”. Although we have grown into a 15,000 s/f arts venue, we gratefully acknowledge our beginning and cherish our history. Two visual art spaces are located within our facility. Visitors enter through the Narrows Gallery, a space with an impressive 210 linear feet of exhibition walls in an elegant architectural design with superb lighting. Nothing several times throughout the year, artwork of every medium is presented. The Narrows Café Gallery occupies a linear wall facing Battleship Cove. Ideal for sequential unfolding of a theme and single-artist shows, this second gallery affords visitors and artists more opportunity to view and exhibit fine art.

Gallery Hours:
Wed – Sat, 12 – 5 pm
Admission is free
Concert-goers are welcome to view the exhibition on performance night.
